

You are currently studying, you are burning for new things and you want to gain first experiences in practice? All with the goal making a significant contribution to the DHL eCommerce division in terms of financial and non-financial reporting and processes? Then join us at DHL Group's Headquarters in Bonn as

Intern ESG and Investment Controlling (m/f/d) DHL eCommerce

limited | 6 month

Look forward to the following tasks:

- You will get to know the extremely versatile division and gain extensive insights behind the scenes of the globally leading logistics company.
- You will support us in the further development of ESG reporting in close cooperation with the division's specialist teams and in strategic planning around non-financial KPIs.
- You will play an active role in the area of Investment Controlling, e.g. in supporting us on strategic Capex planning and capital allocation projects.

Your profile:

- You are currently enrolled in a BA or MA in Business Administration or a comparable degree program with focus on Finance
- You have collected first practical experience in Finance/ Controlling
- You are working responsible as well as self-motivated
- You are fluent in English, good German language skills are a plus but not mandatory
- You have proven MS Office skills (Excel, PowerPoint) and you have a technical affinity for Business Intelligence tools
- Furthermore, you appreciate an international as well as intercultural environment, possess team spirit and convince with strong communication skills.

Your advantages:

- Use this opportunity to put your knowledge into practice and to gain insights into the day-to-day business, as well as in strategical planning in one of the most international companies. We offer a fair compensation.
- Work in a young, diverse and highly motivated team - a varied range of tasks with new challenges every day are waiting for you.
- Transparent working time recording, time off and mobile working allow you a good work-life balance.
- Thanks to a central location in Bonn, good transport connections and a job ticket, you can arrive relaxed

Apply now

Have we aroused your interest? Then apply now with a cover letter, CV, certificates, and your references, either via Mail or via our DHL Group career page.

Your contact

For your application, questions and a first personal contact, please contact Simon Seidl via phone +491736769627 or via mail s.seidl2@dhl.com.

